APPROVAL OF MINUTES – being no additions or amendments to the minutes they stand as presented.

MAYORS REPORTS – Mayor Cielinski gave a brief report on the GEDC meeting held earlier this month. The mayor and the GEDC discussed the possibility of reorganizing to incorporate a part-time employee for the implementation of the Main Street program. GEDC will be reviewing recommended bylaw changes and will work to develop an organizational plan that will work for both entities. Kathy Pateeg will take on the additional responsibilities of Community Development Coordinator, taking on the duties of community development, economic development and Main Street. Councilman Steinbach also attended this meeting and was pleased with the positive reception received from the GEDC.

UPCOMING MEETING – The County Commissioners will be visiting with representatives of Rocky Mountain Energy and the Wind Farm to get an update on the progress of this project.

COUNCIL REPORTS – Councilman Vinnola reported on efforts to secure a CDBG grant for the Human Resources Council. He also reported on the Joint Powers Board meeting he attended and discussion on the optional sales tax proposal for the construction of a new jail facility and remodeling of the existing court house. Both the County Jail and the Animal Control Shelter hope to be included on the ballot at the November election. Councilman Vinnola also reported that Converse County is ahead of the curve for plan development to address issues associated with the pandemic flu.

VOLUNTEER NOMINATION – Robert H. Walters was recognized for his volunteer work. Councilwoman Care read his list of accomplishments including: helping to obtain surface rights for the Rock in the Glen, renovation of Kimball, Kimball Park gazebo, and obtaining the building for the present Deer Creek Museum. Mayor Cielinski then presented the award to Mr. Walters and thanked him for all his hard work.

CANDO APPOINTMENT – Mayor Cielinski read a letter from Joe Coyne, CANDO Executive Director, requesting the appointment of a Glenrock representative to the CANDO board. Mayor Cielinski recommended the reappointment of Richard Cannady to that board. Councilwoman Care moved to appoint Mr. Cannady to this board. Second by Councilwoman Goff. All
